

Anneliese Schenk-Day

811 Seymour Ave.
Columbus Ohio 43205

(614)-962-013
schenk.67@buckeyemail.osu.edu

EDUCATION

2024. M.A. in Sociology, Ohio State University
- 2020 B.A., Ohio State University
Double Major: Psychology and Criminology, with research distinction in psychology (study abroad in Rwanda), magna cum laude
- 2018 A.A., Ohio State University, cum laude

THESIS

- 2020 “A Closer Look at Randomized Controlled Psychotherapy Trials for Adult Depression,” Ohio State University

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

- 2021-2022 Research Assistant, Dr. Hollie Nyseth Brehm, Ohio State University
- Compile, review, and summarize research articles
 - Transcribe genocide perpetrator interviews
 - Organize qualitative data
- 2021-2022 Research Assistant, Dr. Dana Haynie, Ohio State University
- Code qualitative social media data
 - Collect hate crime data
 - Gather research articles
 - Attend weekly research group meetings
- 2018-2020 Research Assistant, Ohio State Depression Lab, Ohio State University
- Administered structured clinical interviews
 - Screened participants for Current Major Depression, Past Major Depression, and Generalized Anxiety Disorder
 - Trained new research assistants
 - Cleaned and managed data
 - Distributed surveys and study materials to participants
 - Attended weekly lab meetings
- 2017-2018 Research Assistant, Subjective Perceptions Research Lab (SuPeR), Ohio State University

- Acted as a confederate and ran participants
- Coded and interpreted data
- Created literature reviews
- Credited participants for their participation

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- 2021 Director of Communications and Fundraising, Miss Able-Humura
- Wrote and researched grants
 - Coordinated fundraising opportunities
 - Recruited local partners, interns, and staff
 - Created website and social media pages
 - Appeared in media outlets
- 2020-2021 Intern and Contracted Employee, US Together, Interpreting Services
- Researched new grants
 - Constructed interpreter feedback and communication tools
 - Restructured interpreter trainings and handbook
 - Recruited translators for forty-five languages
 - Created new community partnerships
- 2018-2020 Volunteer, Sexual Assault Response Network of Central Ohio, Ohio Health
- Served 125 hours
 - Provided emotional support to victims of sexual assault in a hospital setting
 - Assisted victims in the process of police interviews and medical examinations
 - Distributed aftercare recourses and materials to victims
 - Staffed outreach events to recruit new volunteers

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

- 2018 Writing Assistant, Psychology 2367.01, Social Psychology
- Assisted with the creation of lesson plans
 - Provided feedback to students regarding grades and writing techniques
 - Planned and gave lectures
 - Held office hours prior to assignment due dates to assist students
- 2017-2018 Course Assistant, Psychology 1100, Introduction to Psychology
- Assisted with the creation of lesson plans
 - Planned and gave lectures
 - Led review sessions prior to exams

- Recorded and logged student’s participation grades
- Held office hours prior to due dates and exams to assist students

RESEARCH IN PROGRESS

Schenk, A., Haynie, D., Woods, S., Ward, A. Kepes, J. “Political and Social Climates Role in Effective Hate Crime Legislation: A Historical Analysis of State-Level Bias-Based Crime Trends and Laws.”

Nyseth Brehm, H., Schenk, A. Working Title: “Media and Violence in the 1994 Rwandan Genocide.”

HONORS, FELLOWSHIPS, & GRANTS

- 2022 Dean’s Distinguished University Fellowship ($30,420 for first, second, and sixth years of graduate study)
- 2022 ENGIE-Axiom Supplemental Incentive Recruitment Scholarship ($5,000)

RESEARCH INTERESTS

- Crime, Law, and Deviance
- Global and Transnational Sociology
- Peace, War, and Social Conflict
- Inequality, Poverty, and Mobility
- Racial and Ethnic Minorities
- International Migration
- Sociology of Human Rights
- Sociology of Religion
- Race, Gender, and Class
- Sociology of Mental Health
- Social Psychology
- Disability in Society

MEDIA APPEARANCES

“Rwanda: Dark Past, Bright Future with Anneliese Schenk” Rewildology Podcast Ep. 17, April 6, 2021